GIRLS COMMON ROOM

A common room is essentially a staffroom for students, a place where they recharge and prepare for the rest of the day. Common room design plays a vital role in building a sense of community, and providing the right facilities to help them study socialise and relax.

The College has two separate common rooms for girls. The common rooms are well equipped with suitable lighting facility for studying. Table and chairs are provided for the benefit of the students. The provision of separate common rooms for girls will benefit them to carry out the activities with more ease and freedom.
