

DEPARTMENT ACADEMIC ACTIVITY DAY, 2024

Department of History

The department of Sociology in collaboration with the department of History, Education and Computer Science successfully organized the Department Academic Activity Day on 7th September, 2024, with the theme “Appreciating Perspectives” as an act of recognizing, valuing and respecting different viewpoints. The main objective of the theme is to help the students understand the importance of perspectives, emphasizing openness to diverse ideas and a willingness to learn from different perspectives. The DAAD offered a range of diverse activities to the students for fun learning and participation.

The programme was chaired by Kekhrieneinu, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, and the welcome note was delivered by Neichüzonuo Rüpre-o, HOD, Department of Sociology. The students were divided into three groups namely, team Auguste Comte, team Herodutus and team Karl Marx. The overall winning team for DAAD 2024 was team Karl Marx, and the winning team was awarded by the departments respectively. The students also participated in the quotation making competition for department T-shirts. Two winners, both from the department of Sociology and History, were awarded cash prize of Rs. 500/- each. Ohngoi Phom from B.A. 5th semester, department of Sociology, with the quote “Think Socially, Act Thoughtfully”, and Hamdan from B.A. 1st semester, department of History, with the quote “Yesterday’s Events are Today’s Lesson” bagged the cash prize respectively.

Other fun learning activities such as display of French Revolution and its impact on society, collage making competition and fun games were also conducted for the team members. The diverse activities aimed at providing team building activities by enhancing the spirit of team competition, cooperation and collective learning.
