- 3) The Department Academic Activity Day was held on 20th September, 2025, with the theme “Embarking on a Journey of Learning and Fun”. Keeping in mind the theme’s objective, which is, to encourage critical thinking, creativity and fun learning, a variety of activities were organized for the students.

The programme was moderated by Povitho Nyusou from BA 5th Semester, and the opening prayer was led by Suirak, also from BA 5th Semester. Students were divided into two groups: Team Social Statics and Team Social Dynamics.

The Academic Activity Day began with a debate on the topic “Arranged Marriage Vs. Love Marriage: Which Sustains our Society Better?” The debate featured intense exchanges and strong counter-arguments, with participants confidently presenting and defending their views. Povitho Nyusou (BA 5th Sem) from team Social Statics secured the first position with his support for arranged marriage. Isaac (BA 3rd Sem) from Team Social Dynamics won the second position, advocating for love marriage. Hovangrih (BA 3rd Sem) from Team Social Statics earned the third position with his stance in favour of arranged marriage.

Other competing activities, including, “Quiz: Know your Sociologists” and “Guess the Country”, were also conducted for the groups. Team Social Statics emerged as the winner of the quiz, while Team Social Dynamics won the “Guess the Country” competition. The department awarded prizes to all winners.

The Department Academic Activity Day 2025 featured a series of engaging and fun events, where students participated with enthusiasm and expressed themselves through the spirit of competition, teamwork and fun learning.

- 4) The Department of Sociology successfully organized a fundraiser through a food stall to support the 3rd Modelite Fest held on 1st November 2025. In total, the Department contributed Rs. 19310/- through the fundraiser.
